

K-LOVE serves my local community with uplifting music. If it's displaced by an LPFM we will have lost our best station. It's in the public interest because its content is positive and clean and not available in any commercial station.